Blue Ridge Community College
Student Organization Registration Form

Club Rush Day gives students the opportunity to get familiar with the clubs and organizations on campus. For the clubs, it gives an opportunity for advertisement and recruitment. In addition, if curriculum students are interested in getting involved with the community, joining a club or organization is great way to start.

Student Organization: ____________________________________________________________

Advisor: _______________________________________________________________________

Number of tables needed: _______________________________________________________

Number of chairs needed: _______________________________________________________

Other special needs: ___________________________________________________________________

Question: _______________________________________________________________________

Things to remember for those participating in Club Rush Day:

- Arrive at least half an hour before the event begins to set up.
- Provide information such as sign-up sheets for recruitment.
- Tell students and teachers about the event ahead of time, spread the word!
- Provide Question and Answer to participate.